There were 50 patients in the hospital on January 1, 1942 and 82 patients were admitted during the year, making a total of 132 patients under treatment. The number of patients discharged was 83, leaving 49 patients in the hospital December 31, 1942. The largest daily census was 60 and the smallest 47, and the average was 53.8. The average length of stay for males was 188 days and for females 248 days. Total number of hospital days was 19,655.

School Clinic

In the first months of the year clinics were held in the High Schools of Attleboro, North Attleboro, Norton, Easton, and in the Grade School of Swansea. A total of 838 received the intradermal tuberculin test and 254 or approximately 30 per cent reacted positive. A total of 287 chest X-rays were taken and of this number 22 were classified as childhood type tuberculosis. No plans for continuing school clinics were made when schools opened in the fall, owing to the reduced medical staff. However, the facilities of the out-patient department of the hospital are available for the re-examination of follow-up cases and for cases referred by health departments and physicians.

Health Camp

The summer health camp for children was opened during the months of July and August. Fifty-six girls were in attendance during the month of July and 44 boys during the month of August.

Farm

We have continued operation of the farm and have had two full time hired men for this work. Last year the dairy supplied all the milk for the hospital needs and during the months of July and August supplied milk for the children's camp. The average daily milk supply to the hospital was about 100 quarts per day. All milk was pasteurized at the Bliss Brothers pasteurization plant before delivery to the hospital.

The hennery supplied on an average of 60 dozen eggs per week. There was raised on the farm during the year 30 tons of hay and 50 tons of silage.

Cash received from the sale of pigs and from other sales and transactions on the farm amounted to $1,132.12.

Alterations and Repairs

Major alterations were made in the kitchen. The old wooden floors were removed and a tile floor laid on a cement base. The slate sinks which were badly cracked and leaky were removed and replaced by stainless steel sinks and tables. The walls and ceilings of the kitchen received two coats of paint. The cost of these alterations and replacements was $1,632.60.

The outside of the hospital building, not including the administration building, received two coats of paint and one of the large wards and a number of rooms were given two coats of paint inside. The administration building has not been painted for a number of years and it will be advisable to have this building painted as soon as it is practically possible to do so.

Several minor plumbing jobs were carried out. One shower bath was taken out and replaced by a tub bath. A new furnace stove and hot water tank were installed in the small cottage which was formerly occupied by the assistant physician. Extensive repairs were made to the main power plant chimney and the incinerator was rebuilt. These last two items of repair was carried out by the Eastern Construction Company of Fairhaven.

The following items were purchased for the medical department:

- A short wave diathermy machine.
- A Hanovia Ultra-violet Ray machine.
- An Infra-red Lamp.

These last two items represent replacements.

Cost of operation reached a high peak during the year. Increase in wages to employees, granted by trustees and the legislature totalled $10,446.63. That is employees received an average of 22½ per cent. increase in wages. Food costs were up 17 per cent. The average increase in cost over last year was 18½ per cent. The gross cost of operation of hospital including farm, summer health camp, school clinic and out-patient department was $169,748.95. Receipts from farm produce sold, miscellaneous receipts and receipts from the County Health Association amounted $3,972.26. The cost of rebuilding the floor of the kitchen and of new equipment came to $1,632.60. Net operating cost was $164,134.09.

With the present national need for man power many institutions have found it difficult to secure adequate personnel. Fortunately, we have been able to maintain a fairly high per cent of our personnel during the year but we make no predictions as to how we shall fare in the months to come. During the year the assistant physician, Dr. James Donnelly, left the staff to accept a commission in the Army Medical Corps. His place has not been filled. This leaves your superintendent as the only resident medical officer.

It is gratifying to us that so far our non-resident surgical staff headed by Dr. Richard Overholt of Boston, continues to render service and that surgical treatment of our tuberculosis patients is being provided for. We realize that the demands on this staff are such that we cannot expect to have that service as often and regular as we ordinarily would desire but we hope, that despite the demands of the war, that we shall continue to have the service of those who have become skilled in thoracic surgery, as this form of treatment has given most satisfying results to those patients suitable to receive it.

While the year has been in many respects a trying one, due to many factors among which we must reckon the country being at war, yet we believe that our patients have been rendered a relatively high standard of service.

Due to reduced medical staff and at times to shortage of help in other branches of the service, we may not always have been able to carry on at ideal standards. This we believe, is understood by all and I appreciate the spirit in which all difficulties have been met. I wish to thank all heads of departments and all employees who have loyally carried out their duties during the year.

To the clergy who have attended to the spiritual needs of the patients and to all friends and groups of people who sent gifts, flowers, fruit and candy and provided entertainment, we express our thanks.

I appreciate the support the Trustees have given me in the effort I have made to carry out the duties of superintendent.

GARNET P. SMITH,
Suprintendent and Resident Physician.
